Mayoral and Council Reports

Councilmember Ford expressed interest in building a new concession stand. She shared that she was part of the original C & R Saddle Club when it reached an agreement with the town to host two horse shows annually. Since the town owns the land, she recommends revitalizing the area and opening it for community use.

Supervisor Reports

Town Clerk Penny Owens announced that candidates may begin qualifying for the Municipal Election June 10th - 24th. The council will convene on September 2nd to officially canvass the election results. On June 25th at 7:30 a.m., we will host the Mayor's Breakfast, guest speaker for the meeting will be Dan Dahlke County Engineer/Road Department.

Rescue Chief Jeff French reported that he spent the day at the Rescue Service alongside the repair team, working on the roll-up doors. As of now, the doors are operational, though a control board replacement may still be necessary.
